

Youth Rally Scholarship Program

Pull-thru Network's Youth Rally Scholarship Program will provide assistance to PTN families to help cover the costs of having their eligible child attend Youth Rally as a camper. Scholarships are available in an amount up to $1,400 and are limited to the expenses of the affected youth camper. Scholarships are also available for PTN members who have been selected as Youth Rally counselors. Scholarships for counselors are available in an amount up to $1000

Eligibility:

- Camper's parents or the affected individual must be members of Pull-thru Network for at least the past 6 months.
- Camper or counselor must meet the Youth Rally eligibility guidelines.
- Current financial situation does not allow the family or individual to cover the total costs of camper or counselor attending Youth Rally.
- Those receiving scholarships must complete a program evaluation form that will be provided after Youth Rally.

Application must include:

- Application form
- Letter from the individual or camper's parent/guardian that includes:
 - Why the individual will benefit from attending Youth Rally
 - Brief medical history of affected individual
 - Statement of financial need—detail any contributing factors that have stressed the family's financial situation (loss of job, single parent, costs of medical care, etc.)

Optional:

- Validation of financial need by letter from clergy, employer, attending medical professional, social worker, school administrator or other independent person or agency

Available Funding Levels:

- Level One—Credit for rally registration fee (includes room and board) - $750 (camper) or $350 (counselor)
- Level Two—Registration plus travel on commercial airline $1,400 maximum (camper) or $1,000 maximum (counselor)

Dates to Remember:

- The application and supporting letters must be received no later than April 25, 2026.
- Notification of scholarship awards no later than May 9, 2026.
- The Pull-thru Network office will provide registration and transportation information to scholarship recipients no later than May 30, 2026.
