Department of Surgery, Division of Pediatric Surgery
Colorectal and Pelvic Anomalies Program

Children's Hospital LOS ANGELES | 125 YEARS of Hope and Healthier Futures

Beyond Constipation

Understanding Pediatric Bowel & Coloretal Health

A family education and awareness event for Constipation Awareness Month

Friday, December 4, 2026 | 8 a.m. – 1 p.m.
Dale Herklotz Conference Room & Foyer

PRESENTERS & TOPICS

Alexander Van Speybroeck, MD | Pediatrics
Achieving Bowel Continence in Anorectal Malformations, Caudal Regression, Sacral Agenesis, Hirschsprung's and Spina Bifida (Spanish)

Rebecca Richardson, MD | Pediatric & Adolescent Gynecology
Reproductive and Gynecologic Changes and Concerns in Puberty, Adolescent and Into Adulthood

Jaya Punati, MD | Gastroenterology
Restoring Flow and Improving Life: Comprehensive Constipation Management in Colorectal Care

Christopher Gayer, MD | Pediatric Surgery
Appendicostomy 101: Why Have an Appendicostomy and When is it Needed?

Christopher Corbett, MD | Urology
Bladder Augmentation & Catheterizable Channels-Surgery to Help Safely Store Urine and Drain Your Bladder

Genele Romero, NP | Pediatric Surgery
Bowel Management: Helping Kids Achieve Continence

Scan the QR code to register

Last revised date: 10/26/2026